67mm Magnetic Pocket Level with Belt Clip / Holster 17768

by Stabila

This mini sized level fits into a pocket taking up hardly any space and can always be carried with you. It is manufactured to a high professional standard with the accuracy guaranteed through the use of a STABILA precision vial. The base has a strong rare earth magnet for aligning and levelling steel. This level is ideal for all those tasks in tight inaccessible locations.

Features:-

Plastic mini-format spirit level.

Strong rare-earth magnet system for adhesion to metal objects – leaves the hands free for alignment and adjustment.

Quick horizontal alignment of elements, objects and components, even in inaccessible places.

Can always be carried with you – the small spirit level takes up very little space.

With original large-size STABILA precision vial – measuring accuracy in normal position is ± 1.0 mm/m.

Equipment: 1 horizontal vial, 1 measuring surface, rare-earth magnet system (up to 5 times stronger than standard ferrite magnets).

Application:-

Especially suitable for working in metal construction. Ideal second measuring tool for craftsmen and DIY enthusiasts.

Specification:-

Measurement accuracy in normal position: 1 mm/m

Number of measuring surfaces: 1
