The Kincrome gas range is filled with a variety of professional quality, innovative products that are designed to make your job easier and faster. Remove the need for batteries that take time to charge or restrictive cables with this class leading, game changing range of Butane and Propane products. The Kincrome triple flame blow torch is perfect for times when you want to cover a larger surface area but at a lower temperature. With 3 jets it provides an even spread across the flame allowing you to cover a larger area quicker. The provided gas bottle stand maximizes safety by ensuring the bottle doesn't fall over wen not in use.

The triple flame blow torch is ideal for applications such as: Loosening rusty nuts and bolts

Brazing, soldering

Paint stripping

Bending steel

Lighting camp or grill fires

Multiple other uses in and around the office, workshop and job site
