Features:-

Q7xrs is the peak of handheld illumination, and the flagship of the Suprabeam torch range.
The body of the torch is crafted from high strength aluminium, and oozes of supreme quality and craftmanship. Our innovative development team has worked tirelessly to optimise the efficiency of the electronics in order to produce as much light as possible for as long as possible. The Q7xrs is our most powerful torch to date delivering astonishing 2000 lumens, and due to the optimised technology, the runtime is 50% longer compared to other normal LED torches. Not only does the Q7xrs deliver 2000 lumen in peak and a 50% longer runtime, it also ideals at an astonishing 1000 lumens constant light output utilising the whole structure of the torch for heat dispatching.
