This Panel Gauge allows lines to be gauged past the centre of a 56" wide panel. The stem is approximately 30" long (this is based on the lengths of timber available at the time) and the head 9" wide with a brass wear strip fitted inside a rebate which rests on the edge of the panel to be gauged. One one end of the stem has a steel marking pin, the other end has the facility to insert a short, standard sized pencil to mark lines.
